Comment:

Ananya has had a very successful school year so far. She continues to collaborate well with her peers and always shares thoughtful points during class discussions. Ananya brings a positive attitude to the school community with her sense of humour and school spirit. She is encouraged to maintain her organizational strategies for continued success and accountability throughout Semester Two.

Head of School's Comments:

Despite the many adaptations and directional changes this year you have done a wonderful job of remaining a connected and committed student, Ananya. Continue to give your best and remain engaged and at the end of the year you will have much to celebrate.

Mr. Christopher White
